

DRESS MINIATURES

to 1.5x

2066

2066 Set of four: St. Anne (black enamel), St. Stanislaus, St. Anne (red enamel) and Medical Service, Russo-Japanese War. All four double sided. All on a chain. Three Crosses and chain are GOLD. Of the best quality manufacture

Condition: Order of St. Stanislaus has a cheap on a central medallion. Otherwise problems free and choice $ 2,500

2067

to 1.5x

2067

2067 Set of three Orders: St. George, St. Vladimir and St. Anne. All surmounted on an award sword "For Bravery". Sword is silver, hallmarked, enameled. All three crosses and chain are gold.

Condition: Medium, over all nice, some wear $ 2,500

2068

2069

2068 Miniature Insignia for the St. George Award Weapon. GOLD, white enamel. No marks. Use to wear on a set similar to above, signifying the St. George award weapon, among other decorations. Very scarce

Condition:

Superb $ 800

2069 Miniature pin in a shape of Russian Army sword. Opens. Pinback. In opening condition. GOLD, ivory, blade is in silver. Very scarce and a true miniature work

Condition:

Superb $ 1,000

2070

2070 Set of five. All on one ring. Two Hussar insignias, two other miniature shoulderboards, unknown insignia. One shoulderboard is GOLD, other – silver. Few inscribed on a back. Very interesting set.

Condition:

Minimal cheap o enamel on one of the pendant. Otherwise very nice

$ 1,500

2071

2071 Suppression of the Polish Rebellion Cross. 1831. (Virtuti Militari 5th Class). Silver. Chep 389, Ver 199, W 73

Condition:

Choice, practically no wear, patina

$ 400